

Help Me

I wake up in the morning the sunlight hits my face got no clue where I'm lying can't link me with this place my head's like a construction my tongue is thick and dry my eyes are almost blinded the world is passing by what did I smoke?

what did I drink?
what did I swallow?
what did I think?

I'm trying to roll over and start to fight the pain but I can't move my body my efforts die in vain

help me please help me

I hear there's someone breathing besides me very near should I be pleased or frightened? my mind is all but clear it could be I'm a victim abused and hit all night or maybe I'm at home and all will be all right

what is my age?
what is my clan?
what is my place?
what is my plan?

I need to find a way out and fight to take control but I need some assistance to make me leave this hole

help me please help me

I wonder is it evening does moonlight hit this place?
got no clue if I'm dying and floating out in space is this some sort of nightmare imagined in my head or are these weird illusions all signs of being dead?

what is the time?
what is the date?
what is this place?
what is my fate?

I want to get my life back it's time for me to quit as soon as you support me I will be showing grit
